A VERY TENACIOUS BURGLAR

He Prosecuted His Work After One Shot Had Been Fired.

He Fell at the Second Shot, But Quickly Gathered Himself Up and Escaped Off at High Speed.

OEO H. WEBBER, a burglar living at No 314 Fourth street, was arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by his faithful dog, which tugged the bed-lounging and stroked him with his paws. A moment before the burglar had been awakened from his slumber by a snoring dog which discerned in the uncertain light of the morning the form of a man bent on his nocturnal mission. Mr. Webster heard the wailing of his trusty dog and, rising, he saw the dog's head and front legs protruding from under the bed. He was sitting up in bed, looking at the dog, when the dog barked and jumped up. Mr. Webster, who was sitting up in bed, looking at the dog, when the dog barked and jumped up. Mr. Webster, who was sitting up in bed, looking at the dog, when the dog barked and jumped up.

ANOTHER WING FOR THE COURT HOUSE

An Ornamental Story to be Added to the Old Main Block.

Architect W. P. McLean is drawing plans for an addition to the north side of the court house.

Architect W. P. McLean is drawing plans for an addition to the north side of the court house. It will be three stories high and similar in structure to the north wing. The basement will be fitted up with steel cells. Work on this improvement will begin in the spring. Foundations are being made to add another story to the old block on the southwest corner of First and Alder streets. The addition will cost about $10,000. The improvement will impart a touch of architectural beauty to the building and its surroundings. The style of the new story will be the fourth will be in accordance with the main part of the building.

CHARLES HUGHES' SUICIDE

His Mother Tried to Save Him But Was No Quick Enough.

THE GERMANS, who lived at 1215 1/2 First street, were the first to notice the suicide of Charles Hughes. The body of the young man was found in the street in front of his home. He was lying on his back, with his head against the curb. His hands were clasped over his eyes. He was wearing a dark suit and a white shirt. His mother, Mrs. Hughes, was standing by his side, crying. She was trying to revive him, but he was dead. The police arrived and took the body to the morgue. The cause of the suicide is not known.

A DAY ON THE RIVER FRONT.

On Board of Some of the Various Boats and Steamers Now in Port.

The B. & N. Steamer, The Oregon and Elder.

Two of the Oregon Pacific steamers, the B. & N. Steamer, the Oregon and Elder, are now in port. They are both new boats, and are well equipped for service. The Oregon Pacific line is one of the best lines in the Pacific, and the B. & N. Steamer, the Oregon and Elder, are among the best boats in the line.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, moist, palatable and nutritious food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure for I have so found in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government."

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar and for other reasons depend upon the proper proportions of the same and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public."

"DR. MENLY A. MOTT, Ph. D." U. S. Government Chemist.
